

I can't wait to show you off
You a diamond in the rough
Cut off from a different cloth, I ain't tryna do too much
I just wanna take your pain away
Tell you that you beautiful, gorgeous, everyday
I tell God that you the greatest that he ever made
I hope that it's never gon' fade away
If I was locked up in a cell
Would you write me
Overseas gettin' money
Would you Skype me?
They tryna entice me, I tread lightly
Love's unlikely 'cause hoes pricey
Can you come around
And live and breath, trust?
Live your whole life with your feet up
I just love your energy, so
I bought another Patek Phillipe
Black chanel shades on
I know you can barely see
Hermès garments
Make sure you warmed up
Take you out to Greece
And introduce you to foreigners
Treat Mercedes Benz like it's Toys"R"Us
And I just do it just because
I can't wait to show you off
You a diamond in the rough
Cut off from a different cloth, I ain't tryna do too much
I just wanna take your pain away
Tell you that you beautiful, gorgeous, everyday
I tell God that you the greatest that he ever made
I hope that it's never gon' fade away
If you a rider, then a love exclusive
And one thing 'bout me
Know that loyalty crucial
I can drape you a nice ice
I'm the God of nightlife
Throw up twenty-three thousand
And walk out like Mike
You my twin, we identical, ayy
Two steppin' on a pinnacle, ayy
Black trucks in the rearview
Can you tell I'm really into you? Ayy-ayy-ayy

Wanna take your pain away-way-way-way?
Right now, you ain't got a way, way, way, way
I ain't got no time to chase
Wanna store you in my mind as bae
I can't wait to show you off
You a diamond in the rough
Cut off from a different cloth, I ain't tryna do too much
I just wanna take your pain away
Tell you that you beautiful, gorgeous, everyday
I tell God that you the greatest that he ever made
I hope that it's never gon' fade away
Fade away
I hope that it's never gon' fade away
Nah, nah, fade away
